

JINNAH UNIVERSITY FOR WOMEN

Computer Science and Software Engineering Department

STUDENT SOCIETIES

Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering has evolved like a blooming flower over the years. Besides emphasis on our core faculties, student societies have evolved like beautiful petals enhancing the overall beauty. We strongly believe that these student activities help shape and develop the personality of our students broadening their mind and thought processes.

We envision a world beyond technical learning. This gave birth to Dramatic Society, Robotics Society, Entrepreneurship Society, Character Building Society, Graphics Society, Go-Green Society, Literary Society, Community Welfare Society, Debating Society, Mathlete Society and Cyber Security Society.

The seeds had been planted...and the journey began

Each society started with faculty head who nominated student managers. It is laissez faire management style, with the faculty head overseeing the society and the student managers working independently and enthusiastically.

Ideas are generated, events are planned and we see leadership and creativity skills in students. Each semester, all the societies become charged and organize dynamic events in auditoriums and various classrooms, which are thoroughly enjoyed by different audiences.
