JTech'19

Event Summary

Being one of the prominent departments of Jinnah University for Women. Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering is making continuous efforts to make their students stand out and making them familiar with the professional world. At February 7, 2019 Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering organized commendable event named JTech'19 in collaboration with Vouch365, Sui Southern Gas Company, Hakimsons, Super kote, Hamdard health and Vital Tea. A stage for ambitious individuals to showcase their ideas and talent to renowned Software Companies.

Generous participation of Software Companies including TPS Pakistan, Folio3, Bank AL Habib Limited, Akseer Technologies, Contour Software, Monek Online, NED University of Engineering & Technology, Fast National University of Computer and Emerging Sciences, Barrett Hodgson University ,Dow University of Health and Sciences, Buyon.pk, Apex Solutions, Evincible Solutions, Xcelliti, Soft Digital Solution, Block Chain Association, Pakistan International Airline and Freelancers

JTech'19 is an initiative, lining up multiple categories that bridges the gap between students and professional world. Categories involved substantial Job Fair, Software Exhibition and Idea to Product Competition. The overwhelming response and participation of students made this event even more successful. JTech'19 proudly hosted an event which had 29 projects at Software Exhibition and 19 Project Ideas at Idea to Product category. Every single participation made this event worth remembering.

Event took its starts from the recitation of Quran. JTech'19 were delighted to have renowned Software companies that were invited to evaluate Projects and Ideas. Their involvement in this event worked as an encouragement for students. Job Fair Program was on the go. Students were encouraged to show case their skills and experience the professional Gestures. And for companies to recognize and hire talented individuals. JTech'19 was hosting about 8 companies including Folio3, Cubix, Engitech, EFU Life Insurance, Mizaj Fashion, Design Center and Tech Pakistan as Job Fair Partners.

JTech'19 marked its end with the words of appreciation from respectable Chief Guest Dr. Jawwad Ahmed Shamsi, Director National University of computer and emerging sciences. And Dr. Farrukh Iqbal, Director Institute of Business Administration. Followed by distribution of shields to partners, Sponsors, Contributors, Job fair partners and event organizing team. Their presence made JTech'19 a memorable event.

JTech'19 is another feather on Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering Hat. It has been making tougher efforts to stand out in the competition. JTech'19 has extreme efforts of organizing team and students. Faculty, students, organizing team made this event a worth remembering. Our contributors including FoodPanda, IK Printers, Buyon.pk. Media Partners Ummat, Aim hike, Roznama Duniya. Each and Every single effort and contribution made JTech'19 possible.
